

Amazing Date of Zapping Angel Moroni atop Nauvoo Temple

(john pratt – the calendar guy)

Hi All,

Lou Naegle just asked me if the date of lightning striking the head of the Angel Moroni statue atop the LDS Nauvoo Temple about 2 pm CDT (1 pm CST) on Friday (the 6th day of the week) 28 Jun 2019 was significant (See <https://templehousegallery.com/lds-news-events-1/2019/6/28/nauvoo-temple-struck-by-lightning-moroni-statue-damaged>). It turned out to be significant enough to report to you. It was on the following days:

6 Summer (Enoch), 6 Spring (Uniform Enoch), 6 Chief (Priest), 6 Gemini (Star), 6 Light (Sacred Round), 6 Prime (Mercury), 6 Adult (Uniform Mercury), 6 Creation (Venus), and 6 Quickening (UV)!!

If the number 666 is bad, then what is the number 666,666,666?

I didn't know that such a day existed in all of history! And being one day after the day of the martyrdom of Joseph and Hyrum, which seemed to go unnoticed by the LDS Church, the choice of temples for the lightning to strike seems significant also!

This result above for the Priest and Star Calendars is for the strike being before noon (local sundial time), which was not the case in Nauvoo. But it was about half an hour before noon local standard time at the headquarters of the LDS Church. Thus, it appears that this message was for the leaders of the LDS Church there!
