

DESOLATING SCOURGE

Desolate: (adjective) (of a place) deserted of people and in a state of bleak and dismal emptiness

One time, when I was about four, I broke in to a forbidden kitchen cupboard and heisted a bag of powdered sugar. This was expressly verboden. I had been warned many times to leave the powdered sugar alone. When the theft was discovered, the punishment was swift and sure. I was handed a spoon, and Dad told me to eat the remainder of the nearly full bag. I haven't liked powdered sugar since that day.

God's punishments seem to fit this same pattern. Namely, His punishments reflect the sin. For example, Isaiah chapter 1:10

Moreover, the Lord says, Because the daughters of Zion are haughty, and walk with stretched forth necks and wanton eyes, walking and mincing as they go, and making a tinkling with their feet, therefore the Lord will smite with a scab the crown of the head of the daughters of Zion, and the Lord will expose their secret parts.

The way I read this, in the last days, the daughters of Zion will put an inappropriate emphasis on appearance (daughters, in this context, may not refer just to females). Consequently, the Lord will respond to their foolishness by revealing their true appearance: how they look to Him.

Consider also Mosiah 9:5, and the death of Abinidai.

And it came to pass that they took him, and bound him, and scourged his skin with fagots, yea, even unto death. And now when the flames began to scorch him, he cried unto them, saying, Behold, even as ye have done unto me, so shall it come to pass that thy seed shall cause that many shall suffer the pains that I do suffer, even the pains of death by fire.

Shedding innocent blood has to be among the most grievous of sins. But with the death by fire of Abinidai, there was now a pattern, a tradition, that the descendants of the priests of Noah felt justified in following. And the false tradition established by the priests of King Noah, would damn their descendants. The wicked priests destroyed God's seed, and a quid pro quo was forthcoming. And as always, God's punishment was exactly appropriate to the crime.

Which brings us to the point.

When Moses was a babe, his mother was forced to execute an extreme stratagem in order to save his life. Exodus 1:4

And when she could no longer hide him, she took for him an ark of papyrus, and smeared it with tar and with pitch, and put the child therein; and she laid it in the reeds by the river's brink.

This was made necessary, of course, because Pharaoh had decreed the deaths of all the male Israelite babies. Ibid.

When you do the office of a midwife to the Hebrew women and see them upon the birth stools, if it is a son, then you shall kill him.

Some years later, it was this same Moses that delivered this sobering judgement from God to the Egyptians. Exodus 8:1

Thus says the Lord: About midnight I will go out into the midst of Egypt and all the first born in the land of Egypt shall die, from the first born of Pharaoh that sits upon his throne even unto the first born of the maidservant that is behind the mill...

Do we see in this story of captive Israel yet another example of the highly specific way that Divine retribution is meted out?

Which brings us to the present. Denver said the following in the August 20, 2015 post, titled "Genocide."

Abortion was decreed a Constitutional right in (an) opinion written by Harry Blackmun in 1973. In the decades following his decree, an estimated 55 million have been murdered...The United States has murdered more than Mao, Stalin, Hitler, King Leopold, the Khmer Rouge and the Ottoman Empire. At the present rate, in a few more decades, the United States will have killed more than all of them combined. These other genocidal governments targeted political opponents and consolidated their power to govern by killing. The United States has killed primarily in support of sexual gratification, hedonism and as an accepted form of birth control. Every one involved will be held to account for killing.

Now, with those words in mind, read just a little of the excellent essay from Naomi Wolfe (see her article published on Substack), that Mark recently forwarded to us. The scientific data she refers to arises from the internal communications released from Pfizer in response to a court order. The volunteers she references are a group of a couple-thousand medical professionals who are currently studying these communications. It is worth noting that Pfizer was loathe to release this information, and requested that they be allowed to keep the documents private for the next 75 years.

A few extracts from Dr. Wolf's essay. I will italicize everything that comes from her essay.

The WarRoom/DailyClout volunteers have confirmed that lipid nanoparticles, the tiny hard fatty casings that contain the MRNA, traverse the amniotic membrane. That means that they enter the fetal environment, of course...

The Volunteers have drilled deep into the Pfizer documents' reports about pregnancy and found that the assurance that the vaccine is "safe and effective" for pregnant women, was based on a study of 44 French rats, followed for 42 days...

The Volunteers found that while pregnant women were excluded from the internal studies, and thus from the EUA on which basis all pregnant women were assured the vaccine was “safe and effective,” nonetheless about 270 women got pregnant during the study. More than 230 of them were lost somehow to history. But of the 36 pregnant women whose outcomes were followed - 28 lost their babies...

The Pfizer documents also show that some vaccinated mothers had suppressed lactation, or could produce no milk at all...

(F)our of the lactating vaccinated women in the Pfizer documents reported “blue-green” breast milk. I am not making this up. And the nursing baby who died, with an inflamed liver — the case has been buried; has not made headlines...

As if all of this is not horrific enough, Ms Hecht drew studies from three countries — Canada, Scotland and now Israel --- to show that babies are dying disproportionately, during and after 2021, in highly vaccinated countries, and that newborns are dying disproportionately if they have vaccinated mothers versus unvaccinated mothers...

In highly vaccinated Scotland, almost twice the number of babies died in 2021 as died in baseline numbers. In Ontario, Canada, 86 babies died in 2021, versus a baseline of four or five...

You don't have to know more than eighth grade biology to know that a dysregulated menstrual cycle, not to mention spike protein accumulating in the ovaries, not to mention the traversing of the bodies' membranes, including the amniotic sac, by tiny hard fatty lipid nanoparticles, not to mention PEG in breast milk, is all going to affect fertility, fetal health, childbirth, and babies' GI wellbeing or distress, and thus their ability or failure to thrive...

And now, the babies are dying. Now scale the data from Canada, Scotland and Israel to all the vaccinated nations in the world.

What do we do with all of this?

These anti-humans at Pfizer, speaking at the WEF; these anti-humans at the FDA; knowing what they know; are targeting the miraculous female body, with its ability to conceive, gestate, birth and nurture life. They are targeting the female body's ability to sustain a newborn human being with nothing but itself. They are targeting the amniotic membrane, the ovaries that release the ovum, they are targeting the lymph and blood that help support the building up of mother's milk, they are targeting the fetus in utero, helpless.

They are targeting the human fetus' very environment, one of the most sacred spaces on this earth, if not the most sacred.

And they know it...

I don't know about you, and I am not proselytizing, but as you may know if you read me here, these apocalyptic days, I turn to prayer. I have started to say in public, once I had to face the fact of the die-off of the babies, that this is a Biblical time; and I mean Old Testament Biblical.

It is a time like that of the construction of the Tower of Babel — of massive arrogance against divine plans. Men such as Bill Gates tamper with and seek to outdo God's best works in lab after lab, and Tech Bros "disrupt" the human competition for their unsought-after goods and services, by targeting human processes and by ruining the bodies made in the image of God.

It is a time like that when the ten plagues assailed the Egyptians in Exodus 11:4-6:

That's the end of Dr. Wolf's comments

T&C 31:7

And in that generation shall the times of the gentiles be fulfilled. And there shall be men standing in that generation that shall not pass until they shall see an overflowing scourge, for a desolating sickness shall cover the land.

“Desolating” means to make empty, bleak, and barren. To “scourge” is to whip, or flog, or flagellate. Has the desolating scourge arrived? Is what we are seeing a finely tuned Divine response to the tens of millions of aborted, or to use Denver’s word, “murdered,” fetuses? What will happen to the power of the Gentile population if an entire generation is made infertile? Are we seeing a reworking of the story of Abinidai, in which Harry Blackmun and the black robed priests of the High Court set a precedent that spills innocent blood, and which will, thereby, damn generations to come?

The only ray of hope in the entire story is that it was the deaths of the first born of Egypt that finalized its collapse, and allowed Israel to escape into the wilderness.

That is a spoonful of sugar, I suppose.
